• ASSISTED LIVING FACILITIES •

Community Based Residential Facility (CBRF) CBRF's are staffed group living arrangements that provide room, board, supervision and other supportive services to 5 or more unrelated adult residents. Typically, residents have either a private or shared sleeping room and bathroom, and share living and dining space with other residents of the facility. CBRFs are intended for people who cannot live independently, but are neither acutely ill nor need extensive amounts of skilled nursing care. Up to 3 hours of skilled nursing care per week may be provided. Unlimited amounts of supportive and personal care provide. Facilities vary in size from 5 residents to over 100.

Residential Care Apartment Complex (RCAC) An RCAC is a place where five or more adults reside. Apartments must each have a lockable entrance and exit; a kitchen, including a stove (or microwave oven); and individual bathroom, sleeping and living areas. This living option provides no more than 28 hours per week of sup- portive services, personal assistance and skilled nursing services.

Adult Family Homes Adult Family Homes— where 3 or 4 adults who are not related to the operator reside and receive care, treatment or services that are above the level of room and board. May include up to 7 hours per week of nursing care per resident.
